Esq.:
This once proud city, seated by the sea,
With subject realm as boundless and as free,
Though prostrate long beneath an adverse Fate
That left her homes and temples desolate,
Hath yet such wondrous gifts in sea and shore,
It needs but WILL her fortunes to restore:
The stern resolve; with Labor in her marts,
Hope in her homes and courage in her hearts,
To prove superior to the hostile blast,
And all repair, so glorious in her Past! THE DRUMMERS' TOLL .- The sum of $1085 has been received by the City Treasurer as the net amount of taxes and fines collected from nomadic drummers during the month of November. This is exclusive of the percentage that falls to the share of the captors. The war against these itinerant tradesmen has been conducted with rigor. As they were always in a position to cash up promptly, the amount soon attained the proportions mentioned.

LYNCH LAW IN SOUTH CAROLINA. Jefferson, one of the hands on the plantation of Mr. William Gregg, was detected in a theft of cotton by his fellow laborers. They were justly indignant at his depravity, and held a Lynch court, when it was decided that the culprit should receive twelve lashes on the bare back. They were laid on by nuscular arms and justice was appeased, as all concerned were colored and they conceded that they had a perfect right to whip

SUCCESS OF THE ANDERSON COUNTY FAIR. The attentive correspondent of THE NEWS writes from Anderson Courthouse: "The second day of Anderson District Fair was attended by double the number of persons present on the opening day. Owing to the lateness of the hour, I am unable to give you a list of the premiums. The Fair has proved quite a success. There were a great number of articles in each department. Visitors to the late State Fair say that in field crops and ladies' domestic industry, this Fair excels. Every one has returned home with the determination of making the next Fair the best in the State.

A MOBEL ESTABLISHMENT .- We invite the attention of the friends of THE NEWS in the city and down,

MEETING OF WHITE JOURNEYMEN MECHANICS The white journeymen blacksmiths, boilermakers, coppersmiths, tinners and painters assembled last night at the Washington Engine House, Mr. D. C. Ebaugh in the chair. Mr. Ebaugh stated the object of the meeting, which was to elect delegates to the Executive Committee and to sign the con-tractive brunette, winning and refined in feature, stitution of the Workingmen's Union. The obligation by which each man engages to mellow and pleasant, and her acting, especially to give his best support to his fellow workers was then read, and the members of each trade having signed the constitution, elected their delegates. Tickets of admission to the union meetings having been distributed, the chairman declared the meeting adjourned, and all dispersed.

REMOVAL OF THE EXPRESS OFFICE .- The preliminary steps for a removal of the Express office, from their present location to the new building in Hasel street, to the rear of the Pavilion Hotel, had better representatives than Messrs. Wood commenced yesterday. The railings and and O'Neil; and Dr. and Mrs. Sutcliffe, Krux and other fixtures have been erected on the west side of the Hasel street office, giving an ample area for the receipt and sterage of boxes and packages. The upper story will also be used for this purpose. The old office is at present in a mixed condition, but the move will not consume more than two matinee on Saturday.
